REST IS GOOD FOR THE HEART

From our Pastor, Fr. James Kulway

Hi, everyone! I will be out of town July 21–31 for a summer vacation. Fr. Pat will be here to cover Masses and calls. I hope and pray you have a very blessed week!

This theme of summer vacation, rest, and getting away fits well with this weekend's Gospel. After the Apostles returned to Jesus from their mission, Jesus tells them, "Come away by yourselves to a deserted place and rest a while." People were coming and going in great numbers, and they had no opportunity even to eat. So, they left in the boat alone to a deserted place (Mark 6:30–31)."

It is interesting to reflect on and pray with these few verses from chapter six in Mark's Gospel. Jesus specifically invites the Apostles to get away and rest. It is also clear that the crowds wanted more from them, so Jesus took them to a place where they could be alone.

As followers of Jesus, we desire to do God's will in our lives and do the things God asks of us. Sometimes, this involves going the extra mile, going above and beyond, pushing ourselves, etc. You might feel this way when providing for your family, dealing with work, or trying to manage many things in your life at once.

Jesus not only calls us to serve actively but also to rest. The Sabbath day of rest is one of the ten commandments originally revealed by God. God commands us to rest because He loves us and, more importantly, because we need to rest.

Quality rest does not mean we "do nothing" all day. Even though there are things we try to avoid on a rest day, like work, chores, etc., there are also ways to actively rest. First and foremost, we find rest in God and in the people we love and enjoy time with. God always sees us and loves us. When we give ourselves the chance to be loved by God, to be open and receptive to His love, we can find deep peace in our hearts and a deep sense of rest. This inner rest can be much more beneficial to our day and week than sleeping more, watching more television, or spending more time on our phones.

Jesus and His Apostles went away to a deserted place, yes, so they could "get away" from work, but even more importantly, so they could spend quality time together, share a meal together, catch up on their work together, and delight in life together. When you take some time to rest this summer, try to find rest in God. As Psalm 23 says: "In verdant pastures, he gives me repose; beside restful waters, he leads me; he refreshes my soul." Try going to a place away from your normal surroundings, perhaps a chapel or a place in nature, or go for a drive. Give yourself a chance to allow God's love to come into your life. This is also why Sunday Mass is so important. We encounter God's love for us at every Mass. Try to rest in the Eucharist, in God's word, and in His love for you every time you go to Mass. Then, take the time to find rest with people you love. Maybe it is going on a vacation, sharing a meal together, or doing an activity together. (continued on page 4)...

"Let us never forget that it is the Lord who guides the Church. He is the one who makes our apostolates fruitful." –Pope Francis

Resting in God and in the people we love is not a sign of giving up on our responsibilities. It's a way of honoring the balance that God has designed for us. He has created us to work hard, but also to rest. So, this week, take the time to find rest in God, and in doing so, you'll be honoring the way you were designed by God to live.

DID YOU KNOW?

"We can, if we will, become a saint, for God will never refuse to help us to do so." – St. John Vianney

Icons

Icons (from the Greek eikones) are sacred images representing the saints, Christ, and the Virgin Mary, as well as narrative scenes such as Christ's Baptism (2013.980a–d) and Crucifixion. While today the term is most closely associated with wooden panel painting, in the Byzantine Rite, icons could be crafted in all media, including marble, ivory, ceramic, gemstone, precious metal, enamel, textile, fresco, and mosaic.

PRAY FOR VOCATIONS

"The most beautiful and stirring adventure that can happen to you is the personal meeting with Jesus, who is the only one who gives real meaning to our lives." – St. John Paul II

A Prayer for Vocations

Lord Jesus, as You once called the first disciples to make them fishers of men, let your sweet invitation continue to resound: Come follow Me! Give young men and women the grace of responding quickly to your voice. Support our bishops, priests and consecrated people in their apostolic labor.

Grant perseverance to our seminarians and to all those who are carrying out the ideal of a life totally consecrated to your service. Awaken in our community a missionary eagerness. Lord, SEND WORKERS TO YOUR HARVEST and do not allow humanity to be lost for the lack of pastors, missionaries and people dedicated to the cause of the Gospel. Mary, Mother of the Church, the model of every vocation, help us to say "yes" to the Lord who calls us to cooperate in the divine plan of salvation. Amen. (Prayer for Vocations, St. John Paul II)

Pray for those from our parish who are discerning a vocation to the priesthood, religious or consecrated life:

- Sr. Emma Ruth Greathouse
- Nathan Menkhaus
- Sr. Kaitlin Morse
- Sr. Josefa Maria of the Merciful Heart of Jesus
